

Inspired by Unst?

If Unst has tickled your literary creativity, then why not enter our 10th anniversary writing competition.

We are looking for short stories and poems that centre around Unst, the island above all others.

We have two entry categories: Open - for anyone over 15 years of age, and Junior for entrants younger than 15 years of age.

There are fabulous prizes to be won!

The Open winner will receive a hand crafted Fair Isle tea cosy, made by Robyn Robertson.

The Junior entry will receive a £25 voucher to be used in the Shetland Times Bookshop.

Plus the two winning entries will be published in Shetland Life magazine.

So enjoy Unstfest and all that Unst has to offer then get writing and send us your entry!

Writing Competition Terms and Conditions

Entries must be no more than 1, 000 words in length and typed in a standard font.

Each entry should be emailed as an attachment to info@unstfest.org. The covering email must clearly state your name; postal address and the category that you are entering. Names or other identifying information must not be added to the attached entry.

All entries must be your own original work and not previously published.

Entries will be judged by a panel of three people according to relevance to Unst, originality and enjoyment.

Closing date is 31 August 2018. The winners will be notified by email shortly after the closing date.
